Overview of the SNHU Academic Calendar

The SNHU academic calendar is structured around two main semesters: the Fall and Spring semesters, with optional Summer sessions and other shorter-term courses. The calendar typically spans from late August to May for the main academic year, with summer courses running from June through August. The university's academic calendar is published annually, usually several months before the start of the new academic year, allowing students and faculty to plan accordingly. It includes: - Semester start and end dates - Registration periods - Add/drop deadlines - Holidays and breaks - Exam periods - Commencement dates

Key Components of the SNHU Academic Calendar

1. Semester Dates

SNHU's academic year is divided into semesters, primarily:

1. Fall Semester: Typically begins in late August and concludes in December.
2. Spring Semester: Usually starts in January and ends in May.
3. Summer Sessions: Multiple shorter terms running from June to August.

Each semester has specific start and end dates, which are crucial for planning registration, coursework, and exams.

2. Registration and Add/Drop Periods

Registration windows open several months before each semester begins. Students need to enroll during these periods, which are followed by add/drop deadlines—dates by which students can make changes to their course enrollments without penalty. - Early Registration: Usually available several months prior to the semester. - Regular Registration: Opens closer to the semester start date. - Add/Drop Deadline: Typically within the first week or two of classes.

This guide provides a detailed overview of SNHU's academic schedule, key dates, registration periods, holidays, and tips to help you stay on track throughout your academic journey.

What Is the SNHU Academic Calendar?

The SNHU academic calendar outlines the important dates and deadlines for each academic year. It includes start and end dates for terms, registration periods, holidays, exam weeks, and breaks. Whether you're a new student or a returning one, knowing these dates enables better planning for classes, assignments, and personal commitments.

SNHU operates on a flexible, rolling admission model with multiple start dates for its programs, including traditional semesters and accelerated terms. This flexibility is reflected in their detailed academic calendar, which ensures students are aware of all critical timelines.

Types of Academic Terms at SNHU

Before diving into specific dates, it's helpful to understand the types of academic periods SNHU offers:

1. Term-based Enrollment: SNHU offers multiple start dates throughout the year, including traditional fall and spring semesters, as well as summer and winter terms.
2. Accelerated Terms: Many programs are offered in shorter, more intensive terms, often lasting 8-12 weeks.

3. Rolling Admissions: New students can often start courses at various points in the year, making the calendar more dynamic.

Key Components of the SNHU Academic Calendar

1. Start and End Dates for Terms

SNHU's academic calendar is divided into several terms:

1. Fall Term: Typically begins in late August and ends in December.
2. Spring Term: Usually starts in January and concludes in May.
3. Summer Terms: Usually from May to August, with multiple sessions.
4. Winter Sessions: Short periods in December or January for accelerated courses.

Tip: Always check the specific term start and end dates for your program, as they may vary slightly each year.

1. Registration Periods

Registration windows are crucial to secure your spot in upcoming courses:

1. Early Registration: Opens several weeks before the start of each term.
2. Last-Minute Registration: Available until a few days before classes begin, but late registration may incur fees or require approval.

Important: Missing registration deadlines can delay your graduation timeline or limit course options.

1. Add/Drop Deadlines

These dates allow students to modify their schedules:

1. Add Deadline: The last date to add new courses.
2. Drop Deadline: The final date to withdraw from courses without academic penalty.
3. Withdrawal Deadline: Later date where withdrawing results in a "W" on transcript but no impact on GPA.

Note: Dropping courses after the deadline may impact financial aid or academic standing.

1. Holidays and Breaks

SNHU observes federal and institutional holidays, such as:

1. Labor Day
2. Thanksgiving Break

3. Winter Break
4. Spring Break
5. Memorial Day

During these times, classes are typically not held, and administrative offices may be closed.

1. Exam Periods and Final Weeks

The last two weeks of each term are usually designated as exam weeks, with final assignments due prior to exams. It's important to check specific dates for finals and project deadlines.

How to Access the SNHU Academic Calendar

SNHU publishes its academic calendar well in advance each year. Students can access it via:

1. The official SNHU website under the Academics section
2. Student portal or learning management system (LMS)
