What Is Divine Revelation?

Divine revelation refers to the way in which God discloses His nature, will, and purposes to humanity. Unlike human knowledge, which is obtained through observation and reasoning, divine revelation is a direct act of communication from the divine to human beings. It serves as the foundation for religious faith, guiding moral conduct, and shaping spiritual understanding.

Types of Revelation

Historically, religious traditions acknowledge different forms of divine revelation:

1. General Revelation: Manifested through nature, history, and human conscience, accessible to all people at all times.
2. Special Revelation: Specific divine disclosures through prophetic messages, scriptures, and most notably, through the person of Jesus Christ.

In Christianity, the concept of special revelation is centered on Jesus Christ, who embodies God's ultimate self-disclosure.

The Incarnation: God Made Flesh

At the heart of Christian belief lies the doctrine of the Incarnation—the idea that Jesus Christ is both fully divine and fully human. According to Christian doctrine, in the Gospel of John (1:14), "The Word became flesh and dwelled among us." This event signifies God's decision to reveal Himself in a tangible, accessible form.

Key aspects of the Incarnation include:

1. Divine Nature: Jesus is the Son of God, co-eternal with the Father.
2. Human Nature: He experienced human life, suffering, and death.
3. Union of Natures: The divine and human natures coexist in Jesus without confusion or separation.

This dual nature makes Jesus uniquely capable of bridging the gap between God and humanity, making God's revelation both profound and personal.

The life of Jesus, as recorded in the New Testament, illustrates God's love, mercy, justice, and desire for reconciliation with humanity.

Key elements include:

1. Miracles and Signs: Demonstrations of divine authority and compassion.
2. Parables: Simple stories conveying deep spiritual truths.
3. Ethical Teachings: The Sermon on the Mount, emphasizing love, humility, and righteousness.
