Humor activates the limbic system, releasing endorphins that induce positive feelings. When students see a candidate making jokes, they associate that candidate with friendliness, confidence, and authenticity.

The Role of In-Group Identity

Humor tailored to the student body's shared experiences fosters a sense of belonging. Jokes about cafeteria food, school events, or local trends resonate more deeply.

The Balance of Humor and Seriousness

While humor can be effective, overdoing it risks undermining credibility. The key is to strike a balance—using jokes to highlight ideas without overshadowing the core message.

Ethical and Cultural Considerations

Avoiding Offensive Humor

Humor should be inclusive and respectful. Jokes that target groups, perpetuate stereotypes, or are offensive can backfire and damage reputations.
