Detailed Cast Profiles and Their Contributions

Tom Hanks as Paul Edgecomb

Role & Significance: Tom Hanks plays Paul Edgecomb, the compassionate and principled prison guard who oversees Death Row. His character is the moral compass of the story, grappling with the ethics of capital punishment and the supernatural events surrounding John Coffey. Performance & Impact: Hanks' portrayal is layered, blending warmth, authority, and vulnerability. His nuanced performance grounds the film's emotional core. Hanks' reputation as a versatile actor enhances the realism of the guard's perspective, making the audience empathize deeply with his moral struggles. Background & Career: By 1999, Hanks was already an established Hollywood legend, known for classics like Forrest Gump and Saving Private Ryan. His involvement in The Green Mile added gravitas and drew significant attention to the project.

Michael Clarke Duncan as John Coffey

Role & Significance: Michael Clarke Duncan delivers a towering, sensitive performance as John Coffey, a physically imposing but gentle inmate with miraculous healing powers. His character embodies innocence, goodness, and the mysterious supernatural element central to the story. Performance & Impact: Duncan's portrayal is widely regarded as iconic, capturing Coffey's innocence and tragic depth. His performance earned him an Academy Award nomination for Best Supporting Actor, a rare achievement for a role of this nature. Duncan's commanding presence combined with subtle vulnerability created a profoundly empathetic character that resonated with audiences. Background & Career: Before The Green Mile, Duncan was primarily known for his role in The Whole Nine Yards and Armageddon. His casting broke typecasting, showcasing his range as a serious actor. Sadly, Duncan passed away in 2012, but his performance remains a defining moment of his career.

David Morse as Brutus "Brutal" Howell

Role & Significance: Morse plays the reliable and morally upright guard Brutal Howell, who forms a close bond with Paul Edgecomb and the inmates. His character exemplifies integrity and kindness within the brutal environment of Death Row. Performance & Impact: Morse's calm, commanding presence lends authenticity to the role. His nuanced depiction of a man torn between duty and conscience adds depth to the narrative, emphasizing themes of justice, morality, and humanity. Background & Career: Morse is a veteran actor with a career spanning decades, with notable roles in The Silence of the Lambs, The Hurt Locker, and 12 Monkeys. His experience brings gravitas to the film's ensemble.

James Cromwell as Warden Hal Moores

Role & Significance: Cromwell's Warden Moores is a complex figure balancing authority with moral concern. His character navigates the ethical dilemmas of executing prisoners and the supernatural revelations. Performance & Impact: Cromwell's commanding yet nuanced portrayal adds layers to the prison administration's perspective, highlighting the institutional challenges and moral conflicts inherent in death penalty cases. Background & Career: An esteemed actor, Cromwell is known for his roles in Babe, L.A. Confidential, and The Green Mile. His presence lends credibility and depth to the film's portrayal of prison life.

Sam Rockwell as Percy Wetmore

Role & Significance: Percy Wetmore is the sadistic and ambitious guard whose cruelty and negligence lead to tragic consequences. His character introduces tension and highlights themes of abuse of power. Performance & Impact: Rockwell's energetic and intense portrayal captures Percy's nastiness and cowardice. His performance adds a layer of villainy and comic relief, making Percy a memorable antagonist. Background & Career: By the time of The Green Mile, Rockwell was gaining recognition for his dynamic performances in films like Confessions of a Dangerous Mind. His portrayal of Percy is considered one of his standout roles.

Graham Greene as Arlen Bitterbuck

Role & Significance: Greene's character is one of the inmates on Death Row, providing a glimpse into the diverse backgrounds of the prisoners and the societal issues surrounding crime and punishment. Performance & Impact: Greene's portrayal is understated but powerful, emphasizing the dignity of a man facing execution and adding to the film's themes of justice and compassion. Background & Career: A respected Indigenous actor, Greene has appeared in numerous films and TV series, including Dances with Wolves and Thunderheart, often portraying Native American characters with depth and authenticity.

Michael Jeter as Eduard "Del" Delacroix

Role & Significance: Jeter's Delacroix is a lovable, naive inmate whose innocence and tragic fate evoke sympathy and highlight the humanity of those condemned. Performance & Impact: His heartfelt performance adds emotional weight to the story, reminding viewers of the individual stories behind each inmate. Background & Career: Jeter was a talented character actor known for his roles in The Green Mile, Jurassic Park III, and The Polar Express. His performances are characterized by warmth and authenticity.
