Minimalist Setting The play's setting—a simple, well-furnished room—serves as a neutral space where the psychological drama unfolds. The minimalism focuses attention on dialogue and subtext, rather than elaborate scenery.

Use of Silence and Pauses Pinter's strategic use of pauses enhances tension, allowing unspoken emotions to fill the space. These silences often speak louder than words, emphasizing themes of repression, uncertainty, or confrontation.

Language and Dialogue The dialogue in "Old Times" is precise yet layered. Pinter's characters often speak in fragments, with repetitions, interruptions, and ambiguous statements. This creates a sense of unease, as the truth remains elusive.
