The Foundation of Icke's Worldview

David Icke's perception of reality is rooted in the belief that the world is not as straightforward as it seems. He posits that human society is governed by hidden forces and that a small elite manipulates global events to maintain control. From his perspective, the mainstream media, governments, and financial institutions serve the interests of this shadowy elite, often referred to as the "globalist cabal." Icke suggests that the perception most people hold—what is often accepted as truth—is shaped by intentional misinformation and propaganda. His perception emphasizes the importance of critical thinking and questioning authority to uncover the deeper truths behind world events.

According to Icke, reality is much more interconnected and spiritual than mainstream science or society acknowledges.
