Essential Tools in the Restorative Practices Playbook The following tools serve as practical instruments for educators and school staff to embed restorative principles into daily discipline strategies.

1. Restorative Circles Restorative circles are structured conversations that foster open dialogue and mutual understanding. Types of Circles - Community Building Circles: Used to establish trust and rapport among students and staff. - Conflict Resolution Circles: Facilitated when conflicts arise, encouraging parties to share perspectives. - Re-entry Circles: Held after an incident to reintegrate students who have been involved in disciplinary actions. How to Conduct a Restorative Circle - Set clear ground rules emphasizing respect and confidentiality. - Use a talking piece to ensure everyone has a chance to speak. - Guide the conversation with open-ended questions. - Focus on listening and understanding, not blaming.

3. Sharing: The person responsible for the harm shares their perspective.
4. Impact Statement: The person harmed describes how they were affected.
5. Responsibility and Repair: The responsible party discusses how they will make amends.
6. Closure: Summarize commitments and next steps.

3. Restorative Questions Restorative questions guide reflection and facilitate accountability. Examples of Restorative Questions - What happened? - What were you thinking at the time? - Who has been affected by this? - How do you think your actions affected others? - What do you need to take responsibility? - What could you do to make things right?
