Origins and Context of Be Here Now

Ram Dass: From Harvard to Himalayan Heights

Born Richard Alpert, Ram Dass was a Harvard psychology professor whose journey into spirituality began in the 1960s. Initially researching consciousness and human behavior, he became intrigued by the psychedelic experience, which led him to experiment with substances like psilocybin and LSD alongside Timothy Leary. However, these experiments also propelled him toward a deeper quest for understanding the mind and spirit beyond chemical alterations. His pilgrimage took him to India, where he met his spiritual teacher, Neem Karoli Baba, affectionately known as Maharaj-ji. The encounter transformed his perspective, integrating traditional Eastern spiritual practices with his Western scientific background. Ram Dass's immersion into Indian philosophy, yoga, and meditation culminated in the creation of Be Here Now, a book that distills these teachings into accessible, compelling language.

The Birth of Be Here Now

Published in 1971, Be Here Now emerged from Ram Dass's desire to share his spiritual insights with a broader audience. It was initially conceived as a set of lectures and notes but quickly evolved into a full-fledged book, characterized by its unconventional format and vibrant visuals. The text was designed to be more than just words—it's a spiritual artifact, infused with artwork, quotes, and a free-flowing style that invites active engagement. The book's timing coincided with a period of cultural upheaval in the West, where interest in Eastern spirituality, meditation, and alternative lifestyles was burgeoning. Be Here Now perfectly captured this zeitgeist, offering a road map grounded in love, mindfulness, and self-awareness.

Core Themes and Philosophical Foundations

Presence and Being: The Heart of the Teaching

At its core, Be Here Now emphasizes the importance of living fully in the present moment. Ram Dass advocates for mindfulness—not as a mere practice but as a way of being. The book challenges readers to shift their focus from past regrets or future anxieties to the here and now. This theme is encapsulated in the phrase "Be Here Now," which becomes a mantra for awakening. The idea is that true peace and fulfillment arise when we accept and embrace the present, letting go of attachment to the ego, material possessions, or imagined identities. Key points on presence:

- Recognizing that the present moment is all we truly have.
- Understanding that attachment to the past or future creates suffering.
- Cultivating awareness through meditation, mindfulness, and self-inquiry.

Practices emphasized include: - Loving-kindness meditation. - Acts of service without expectation. - Cultivating empathy and understanding.

The Ego and the True Self

Key insights: - The ego as a construct that shapes our perceptions and attachments. - The Self as pure consciousness, beyond form and thought. - Techniques like self-inquiry and meditation to transcend egoic limitations.
