Verse-by-Verse Breakdown of John 21:1-19

Verses 1-3: The Disciples' Return to Fishing > After these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples were together. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We will go with you." They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. Key Points: - The disciples return to their former occupation—fishing—highlighting their initial state of confusion or waiting. - The mention of specific disciples emphasizes the personal nature of this encounter. - The unsuccessful night of fishing symbolizes their spiritual frustration or sense of aimlessness after Jesus' death. Verses 4-8: The Miraculous Catch of Fish > Just as day was breaking, Jesus stood on the shore; yet the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, "Children, do you have any fish?" They answered him, "No." He said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in, because of the quantity of fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved therefore said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his outer garment, for he was stripped for work, and threw himself into the sea. The other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, but about a hundred yards off. Key Points: - The miraculous catch signifies Jesus' divine power and guidance. - Recognizing Jesus by the miraculous sign leads to immediate action—Peter's impulsiveness and eagerness. - The scene echoes the earlier miracle in Luke 5, emphasizing continuity and Jesus' ongoing relationship with His disciples. Verses 9-14: The Disciples' Meal with Jesus > When they got out on land, they saw a charcoal fire in place, with fish laid out on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish that you have just caught." So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, one hundred fifty-three. Although there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast." Now none of the disciples dared ask him, "Who are you?" They knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and so with the fish. Key Points: - The shared meal signifies fellowship and restoration. - The detailed mention of 153 fish highlights the miraculous nature of the catch and the divine orchestration. - Jesus' act of sharing bread and fish echoes His ministry and the feeding miracles. Verses 15-19: Jesus Reinstates Peter > When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." He said to him, "Feed my lambs." He said to him a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." He said to him, "Tend my sheep." He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" and he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep." Key Points: - The threefold question mirrors Peter's three denials, offering a chance for repentance and restoration.

Setting the Scene: The Disciples' Post-Resurrection Outlook

John 21 opens with the disciples fishing at the Sea of Tiberias (also known as the Sea of Galilee). Key elements include:

1. Threefold Questioning: Jesus asks, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" three times, mirroring the three denials, signifying forgiveness and restoration.
2. Different Words for Love: The Greek words "agape" (selfless love) and "phileo" (brotherly love) are used, emphasizing depth and authenticity in love.
