Puns and alliteration are literary devices that, when used skillfully in headlines, can turn a mundane news story into an engaging read.

- Puns: Playful wordplay that exploits multiple meanings of a word or similar-sounding words to create humor or emphasis. For example, "Egg-cited about the new bakery opening" for a story about a bakery.

Using these devices in headlines can:

- Capture attention quickly
- Convey the tone or mood of the story
- Make headlines more shareable on social media
- Reinforce brand personality and voice
